VILLAGE OF SHELL LAKE

I can't help but reflect on how fortunate we are here in Shell Lake, Saskatchewan, Canada. Life just goes on and we take so much for granted. No bombs threatening our lives, no tsunamis, no famine, no floods. Heck, there isn't even any snow! I know that is disappointing for our annual winter visitors but my husband sure isn't complaining.

I would like to reflect on what the Village has accomplished over the past year. Using funds from the hauled sewage lagoon, we were able to revitalize the "blowers" in the lagoon that had become sluggish after twenty odd years. We also repaired the street going past the Villa and shored up the sides of Memorial Drive. The storage side of the Village shop was insulated and a gas heater was installed. We recently purchased a sander to fit our Kabota and had a chance to try it out on the recent ice that we had. It works well and wasn't that expensive. We opened up more lots for sale and four have been spoken for. We surveyed the property known as the "we" which dips into the park and ball diamond area. We are contemplating putting in some more seasonal sites.

Work is progressing on the rink rebuild. I believe they are putting on the tin roof as we speak. The weather has made construction so much easier!

January is typically the month to buy your business licenses. That also pertains to transient businesses. Stop at the office and purchase your license for $100 for the year. We will also have a six month rate and a daily if you wish. Going forward farmers markets and trade shows will be expected to have a license.

All dogs, cats and elephants require a pet license. Even with a license your pet must be on a leash. We have received complaints that dogs are charging out at people from their master's yard. Not cool! Reportedly there is a wolf roaming around at north end of town.

This brings to a close the year 2023.
I hope you all enjoy bringing in the New Year.

From myself and council, I wish you a new year filled with promise.

Respectfully, Anita Weiers, Mayor
